Mrs. Arthur Feagin is visiting her mother at this writing.

Three of W. M. Rice's children are very sick with sore throats.

Little George Feagin was taken sick in school and had to be taken home.

Cal and Walter Ruby are visiting at the home of Vic Covall.

Clyde Coker has been visiting at the Westley home the past week.

Mrs. Vic Covall is suffering from a badly burned hand.

J. W. Dennis butchered two fine hogs this week.

R. W. Westley butchered a fine hog that dressed about three hundred and fifty pounds.

Mrs. Squibs has been quite sick with pneumonia.

G. W. Elliott is working at Broadwater at present.

Mrs. Billie Archer and Mrs. Geo. Elliott were calling on Mrs. Squibs last Wednesday.

Mrs. R. W. Westley and Mrs. Nettie Westley spent the day with Mrs. Elliott Thursday.

CLEMAN

The weather is fine, but there are lots of sick folks everywhere.

Charley Hart's brother is here on a visit.

Mrs. Arthur Feagin returned home from Thelma last Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Elliott and children and R. W. Westley and family took dinner with Mrs. Westley Sunday.

H. Sagamiller went to Alliance on Monday.

R. W. Westley went to Bridgeport Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Dorothy Elliott drove to Broadwater Wednesday.

I. Dennis is on the sick list.

Mrs. Feagin went to Alliance Wednesday, Mrs. Charles Elsnass staying with the children while she was absent.

Mr. Shoemaker from the south table was calling in the sand hills this week.

Walter Tice and family are moving to Kansas. They loaded their car this week. We wish them success in their new home.

COUNCIL HAS A LIVELY MEETING

Exciting Times at Meeting Tuesday Night. Sunday Picture Shows to be Voted on.

LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Pandemonium reigned for a short time at the city council meeting Tuesday night in the city hall when Frank Wolverton, after describing a moving picture which had been shown on the screen at the Empress, strode forward with clenched fist and blazing eyes and asked the mayor whether or not the women and young people of Alliance were to be allowed to say if they desired to allow the shows to remain open Sunday evenings or not.

It was a stormy session all the way through. A large crowd attended with those who are working for the Sunday closing of picture shows, and a number were there for Caulder and Dubuque, owners of the Empress and the Crystal.

All of the councilmen, Snyder, Mollring, Sterns and Vaughan, and the mayor, were present. The reports of the city officers, together with the report of the light and water department, were received. They are published herewith. Moved by Sterns, seconded by Snyder, that the reports be accepted. Carried.

P. E. Romig, chief of the fire department, reported that the streets and alleys of the city, especially in the business portion of town, were in a dangerous condition and that rubbish and trash were piled against buildings and fences and that hot ashes were thrown out without regard to safety. He stated that two fire alarms the past month were due to hot ashes and that there was need of an ordinance prohibiting this. The mayor referred him to the ordinance giving the fire chief power to enforce the cleaning up of all dangerous places. Mr. Romig stated that an ordinance should be passed requiring cans to be furnished as receptacles for ashes, etc. The mayor advised Mr. Romig to make an example of the first tenant or property owner who refused to comply with his orders. The chief stated that he would start on Monday notifying all who are disobeying the law and that an example would be made of the first who failed to comply.

Mr. Romig tendered the mayor and council a vote of thanks for the appropriation of $75 made for the department to help pay the expense of the delegates in going to North Platte. He also told of the need of a chemical engine for Alliance and how the fact was emphasized at North Platte that a chemical engine in a city of this size would reduce insurance rates not less than 15 per cent. He stated that Geneva had purchased an auto chemical engine costing $4,500 within one week after the convention. City Attorney Boyd stated that complaints had come to him regarding straw and hay lying loose and not raked up.

Picture Show Question

The mayor then called for the report of the special committee appointed to meet with representatives of the picture shows and the churches to confer on the question of Sunday closing of picture shows. This report was as follows:

Petition For and Against Sunday Closing of Moving Picture Shows.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council:

We your committee to whom was referred the above petitions beg leave to submit the following report. Called and held meeting on Jan. 28, in City Hall, those present being Mr. Lann, Rev. Brown, representing the petition for Sunday closing, Mr. Dubuque, against closing, City Clerk Emerick, Attorney Boyd, Councilmen Vaughan and Sterns. An attempt was made to have the two parties meet on running the shows at certain hours on Sundays but neither side favored this plan. A thorough discussion for fully two hours failed to produce an agreement but brought out the following points:

1. That the granting of the license does not constitute a contract and that the mayor and city council have the power to enforce the closing of the shows or to permit them to run.

2. Mr. Dubuque admitted that it was his intention to run on Sundays at the time he applied for the license.

3. The city clerk stated that had he known at the time he issued the licenses that it was Mr. Dubuque's intention to open his shows on Sunday, he would have refused to issue the licenses until the council had investigated the matter.

4. Mr. Dubuque started running the shows on Sunday without the consent of the council, mayor or marshal. The licenses were granted on Sept. 4th, and the shows opened Sundays on or about Nov. 18th, 1912. In view of the above facts and believing it to be for the best interest of the children and young people and being the wish of the larger percent of the citizens of the town, we beg to recommend that the mayor and city council take such steps as are necessary for the Sunday closing of all picture shows and similar amusements with the least possible delay.

We call your attention to a news item or clipping from the Omaha Bee, showing what has been done along this line at Fremont, Neb.:

Fremont Puts Ban on Sunday Picture Shows

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 29.—The city council last night passed a resolution which, City Attorney C. E. Abbott says, puts a permanent ban on Sunday moving picture shows.

The resolution, which was passed unanimously, approved the city attorney's action in arresting C. E. Dunbar and R. A. Livingston for operating their moving picture house last Sunday. The council agreed to meet in a special session Saturday night to pass an ordinance prohibiting moving pictures or other theatrical performances on Sunday.

Respectfully,
K. J. STERNS,
Committee appointed by Mayor.

The report was signed by Councilman Sterns only, he stating that Councilman Snyder, the other member of the committee, had been prevented from being present at the conference on account of sickness. Councilman Snyder was asked whether or not he wished to sign the report. He stated that, in his opinion, the settling of the matter should be left to a vote of the citizens at an election and that he did not care to sign the report as given.

A. T. Lann read a clipping from the Lincoln State Journal regarding the closing of Sunday picture shows in Fremont. Attorney Boyd stated that there is no state law prohibiting moving picture shows on Sunday. The Fremont case was discussed. It was stated that the city council of Fremont was in favor of closing shows on Sunday and that the matter was now being fought out in the state courts, that the picture show managers there had closed the Sunday shows pending the decision of the case.

Ed. Shields talked in favor of the Sunday show, stating that he had attended them and found nothing objectionable and that he believed the matter should be put before the people for their action. He stated that newspaper reports are generally unreliable and could not be depended upon, referring to the Fremont case.

Mr. Lann stated that the question as to whether or not the Sunday shows were detrimental had been thoroughly threshed out at a former meeting and at the conference, that the mayor stated no further expressions were wanted in the form of petitions, that the matter had been delayed too long and should be settled at once. He stated that in Belle Fourche, S. D., Mr. Dubuque was involved in the same kind of a controversy and that he promised to close within a certain time but sold out and left before that time had expired. Mr. Dubuque denied this and stated that he ran his show eight months after the question had been taken up.

Councilman Vaughan asked that an ordinance be drawn prohibiting Sunday shows in order that a vote might be taken on it to settle the question. The mayor, in speaking of the fact that Dubuque secured a license without the subject of Sunday shows being mentioned, said that he had slipped one over on the council. Mr. Dubuque stated that he had talked with several of the ministers before opening on Sunday. Mr. Caulder then addressed the council, and made a speech in which he stated that under the constitution of the United States we are all free American citizens, that they were injuring no one by running Sunday shows and that they should be permitted to continue.

Councilman Sterns then brought up the matter of running pictures until to be seen at the local shows. He stated that the pictures of the James boys recently shown were refused in Denver. Rev. Brown then stated that Messrs. Dubuque and Caulder called on him before they opened the Sunday shows and that he told them he would oppose them if they opened. Rev. Brown stated that pictures had been shown within the last month that were not fit to be seen. At this point a number present jumped to their feet and asked for the floor. Rev. Brown held the floor and on request of the mayor called on Frank Wolverton, who told of several pictures which he had seen, one of them being a picture which would be called the "hootchie-cootchie" dance. Mayor Barnes stated that he was at the show and saw this picture. Rev. Brown stated that Mr. Dubuque admitted at the conference that he did not know what pictures he would show until a day or so before presenting them and that although most of them were high class he would occasionally get one of this kind. Mayor Barnes stated that a picture of the kind described was not fit to be shown. A number of those present then talked and tension was at a high point for some time. Mayor Barnes then said that the matter should be settled. Motion of Councilman Snyder that the matter of closing Sunday shows be left to a vote of the people on April 7, 1913, was voted on. On roll call Snyder voted yes, Mollring yes, Sterns, no, Councilman Vaughan refused to vote and stated that he did not believe in attacking one man or business but that if the question of closing all Sunday amusements was taken up he would vote on that. Mr. Lann then asked that the petition presented at a former meeting be acted upon. Mayor Barnes stated that the matter was settled. Rev. Godfrey asked whether or not a promise had been made at a former meeting that the petition would be acted upon. Mr. Dubuque then stated that the matter was settled and that until the question was settled at the election he would not open Sunday evenings until one-half hour after the church closed.

Councilman Sterns then asked that his report be considered. Mayor Barnes stated that inasmuch as it was not signed by both members of the committee it would not be acted upon but that it would be placed on the minutes of the meeting.

The question was then asked whether Councilman Vaughan had voted on the motion of Councilman Snyder. The clerk stated that his record did not show clearly and asked that another vote be taken. Councilman Vaughan again explained his vote, stating that he did not believe in closing one form of amusement and allowing others to remain open. The motion was again read and roll call ordered. The vote was, Snyder, yes; Mollring, yes; Sterns, no; Vaughan, no. This left a tie, which was decided by Mayor Barnes who voted yes. This settled the question and other matters were taken up.

Hauling Hose Carts

Fire Chief Romig asked what should be paid to teamsters for hauling hose carts and the hook and ladder truck to and from fires. It was decided that $2.00 per haul would be paid. This includes both to and from fires. It was decided to pay $1.00 per man for reeling hose, not more than three men to be paid for the two carts.

City Scales

The question of the city scales and official weighmaster was brought up. It was shown that an official city scale was needed, and that an of-
